

ACCP

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF
CORRECTIONAL PHYSICIANS

2019 ACCP FALL EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE

What every correctional practitioner needs to know in a changing world about managing Substance Use Disorder

October 13, 2019
Fort Lauderdale, FL

2019 ACCP Fall Conference Topics include:

- ◆ How to help your lawyer protect you
- ◆ Implementing Counseling in MAT
- ◆ Is MAT a constitutionally guaranteed treatment?
- ◆ MAT and a Physicians Obligation
- ◆ Challenges of MAT in a rural jail or a state prison
- ◆ Opiates monitoring and treatment
- ◆ Telemedicine of MAT patients
- ◆ Juvenile opiate disorder
- ◆ MAT panel

CME

Application for CME has been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians.

CME Certifications

Certifications will be sent electronically. Please submit the CME form and the completed conference evaluation at the Registration Desk upon your last attended session. For forms not received on site, please mail your CME form and evaluation form to:

ACCP

Attention: Christine Westbrook

14 Coves End Road

Marion, MA 02738

Or fax your forms to: 773-553-5955

CME credit will only be issued for completed sessions.

2019 ACCP Fall Meeting Agenda

- 7:30am-8:00am Gathering, Coffee, Introductions, Passing of the Gavel
- 8:00am-10:00am How to help your lawyer protect you
Larry Wulkan, JD
- This session will include a mock deposition with attorneys for Each side.
The mock case will be an opiate use disorder death case.
- 10:00am-10:15am Break
- 10:15am-11:00am The role and implementation of counseling in MAT
Lia Bigelow
- The evidence for counseling as part of MAT; the different types of therapy, their relative values/roles, and the appropriate level of therapists; the best timing for therapy relative to an incarceration (jail vs prison) (including how to deal with therapy in re-entry, i.e. what should you do in-house vs. out-house)
- 11:00 am-11:02am Research Fellow | Impact Justice
Leslie Soble
- 11:00am-11:15am Break
- 11:15am-11:45am Is MAT a constitutionally guaranteed treatment?
Gabe Eber, JD, MPH
- A presentation of the current status of litigation regarding failure to provide MAT and a “look into the crystal ball”
- 11:45am-12:00pm MAT and the physician’s ethical obligation
Marc Stern, MD, MPH
- Facilitated discussion among audience of how to apply ethical principles to deal with a situation where the facility administrator instructs the physician to provide care other than what is legally and medically required.
- 12:00pm-1:30pm Lunch

12:15pm-1:00pm Luncheon Speakers

Challenges of implementing MAT in a small rural jail

Ki Shin, MH

Challenges of implementing MAT in a state prison system

Lara Strick, MH, MS

1:00pm-1:30pm Business meeting and break

1:30pm-2:30pm Effective monitoring and treatment of withdrawal from opiates in a Correctional Setting

Todd Wilcox, MD, MBA

2:30pm-3:30pm Short topics – approximately 15 minutes each

Managing the pregnant patient with opiate use disorder

William Young, MD

Using telemedicine to manage patients on MAT

William Young, MD

Managing the juvenile patient with opiate use disorder

Jennifer Maehr, MD

Lessons learned from a program to identify patients with opiate use disorder in an Isolation Unit, and begin MAT

Johnny Wu, MD

3:30pm-3:45pm Break

3:45pm-5:15pm What can our patients teach us about MAT

Patient Panel

A panel of 5 patients with histories of substance use disorder, including some who are currently incarcerated and some who are formerly incarcerated. The panelists will share what works and what doesn't work with regard to withdrawal from opiates, continuation of MAT, initiation of MAT, and transition to the community. Most of the time will be devoted to a facilitated interaction between the audience and the panel.

5:15pm

ADJOURN

2019 ACCP Fall Educational Conference Faculty

Lia Bieglow, MA, CAP, LMHC, LPC, Clinical Director of Palm Beach Sheriff's Office

Gabe Eber, JD, MPH, Senior Associate, Center for Public Health and Human Rights, Bloomberg School of Public Health, Johns Hopkins University

Jennifer Maehr, MD, FAAP Medical Director, Maryland Department of Juvenile Services

Ki Shin, MD, Medical Director, Grays Harbor County Jail, Clinical Professor of Medicine, University of Washington School of Medicine

Marc F. Stern, MD, MPH, Department of Health Services, University of Washington, School of Public Health

Lara Strick, MD, MS, Infectious Disease Physician, Washington State DOC, Clinical Assistant Professor, University of WA

Todd Wilcox, MD, MBA, CCHP-P, FACCP, CCHP-A, Salt Lake County (Utah) Jail System

Johnny Wu, MD, FACCP, CCHP, CCHP-P, FACP, Centurion, Chief Medical Officer

Larry Wulkan, CCHP, Attorney, Stinson Leonard Street, LLC

William Young, MD, PrimeCare Medical, Inc., Medical Director

ACCP Board of Directors:

President: Juan Rudy Nunez, MD, CCHP-P, FACCP

President Elect: Charles Lee, MD, JD, FACCP

Secretary: Cassandra Newkirk, MD, MBA

Treasurer:

Immediate Past President: Keith Ivens, MD, FACCP

Directors:

Jeffrey Keller, MD, CCHP-P, FACCP

Lawrence Mendel, DO, FACCP

Olugbenga Ogunsanwo, MD, CCHP, FACCP

Joseph Penn, MD, CCHP

David Thomas, MD, JD, Ed.D.

NCCHC Liaison:

Steven Shelton, MD, CCHP-P, CCHP-A

ACCP Staff:

Christine Westbrook, Executive Director

About the ACCP:

The ACCP is the only membership organization committed solely to the professional development and fellowship for Correctional Physicians, providing a venue for us and our patients.

ACCP members are united through the goal of improving public health by examining issues specific to the incarcerated and identifying solutions for medical professionals.

The ACCP endeavors to advance research, education, and training in correctional medicine through academia and government.

Serving our members by promoting the highest professional and ethical standards in the care delivered in America's correctional

Membership:

Interested in becoming a member of the ACCP?

Please visit:

www.accpmed.org

YOU WANT TO WRITE FOR CORRDOCS:

Do you feel empty? Is there a nagging sense of unfulfillment? Do you wake up knowing that you are missing something from life? No, it's not that you bailed on you junior prom.

Join our elite guild of tens of tens and find personal satisfaction and world harmony.

Please submit your article to: christine@accpmend.org